1 On the date and time and in the place indicated above, I saw the above-named individual before me,
2 and I said to him, I, a police officer, whose details are indicated above, inform you that I am about to 3 question you and take your statement further to the statements that you gave during your questioning
4 on April 23, 2002, and April 25, 2002. In addition, I remind you that you are being questioned under 5 caution and that you need not say anything unless you want to; however, anything you say will be

10 After I read before the above-named individual the statement above and translated it into the Arabic 11 language for him, which he understands, he confirmed with his signature that he understood the 12 content of the charge and the warning, and said of his good free will:
13 I want to tell you further to what I said in my statement. In 1993, I went out with the Shabiba 14 movement in Anbata Tulkarm. When I was aged 14-15, I was approached in the neighborhood by 15 [redacted], aged about 30, married, known as [redacted], a resident of Anbata,
16 who suggested that I come with him for "activity", without telling me what he meant by activity.
17 Before the activity, [redacted] asked me to bring a tape recorder with me. And I
18 brought the tape recorder from home and at ten at night I departed with (1) [redacted]
19 [redacted] (2) [redacted], today aged about 28-30, a [redacted]
20 living in Anbata, and we went out on foot to the home of [redacted], aged about 35,
21 married, working as a painter (Dahayan) and living in Anbata; together with us six-seven masked men
22 came, and then we took [redacted] to a hill in Anbata, and we used force because [redacted]
23 [redacted] wanted to escape, and we seized and tied his hands (Rabtana) with a cloth. And then we 24 came to the hill in Anbata [illegible; crossed out] and after that

1 masked men stayed there and [redacted] and I returned to the village. Before
2 [redacted] and I went down, [redacted] took the tape recorder from me and gave it to a masked 3 man. [illegible; crossed out]
4 And on the following day [redacted] returned the tape recorder to me, and after about 4-5
5 days I saw [redacted] in good physical condition. In the eighth month of 2001, Wafa Idris 6 recruited me as a source (Mansour) for [redacted] and introduced me to 7 [redacted]; each time I had information, I would forward that information to [redacted]. In 8 my first statement I said that his name was [redacted] [illegible; crossed out] and he is 9 [redacted], but his real name is [redacted], aged about 40, whose is known
10 as [redacted], married and living in Bitunia [redacted], and he is tall, mustached, 11 fat and fair complexioned. In that period I worked and brought information of suspicions (Shibha) of 12 vice (alhalkiya) and theft: (1) [redacted], aged about 30, married, known as [redacted], an 13 ambulance driver, a resident of Ramallah; (2) [redacted], aged about 32, married, a first 14 aid (Asaf) center manager, living in Kafr Akab, who used to live in the U.S.; (3) [redacted], aged 15 about 50, married, a deputy manager of the Red Crescent (Hilal al Ahmar) in Ramallah. A resident of 16 Ramallah, he was suspected of stealing money; (4) [redacted], aged about 30, married,
17 Abu Adal, an ambulance driver and a cleaner in Jerusalem, a resident of Beit Iksa. On January 2001,
18 he talked to me about military issues. [redacted] talked with me about a suicide attack in Israel and 19 that this time a woman was sent, and the talk about the woman and the suicide raised the name of 20 Wafa Idris. [redacted] asked me what I thought about Wafa. I said to him that I did not know and we 21 should ask her. And then [redacted] approached Wafa Idris and invited her to his home

1 In the home of [REDACTED] we sat down, [REDACTED] and Wafa Idris and I, and we talked about the 2 subject; I mean a suicide attack. And then initially Wafa Idris agreed and afterward she changed her
3 mind. We said that the attack would be in Jerusalem, we did not say where in Jerusalem. Wafa Idris
4 changed her mind because I told her that I was going down to Jerusalem, meaning that I would be a
5 partner with her in the attack, and because of this Wafa withdrew her consent, and she did not want to 6 be the reason that would endanger (Tathar) me.
7 And then Wafa Idris said that she would only put the explosive device in Jerusalem and so a suicide
8 bomber would not be needed, and then [REDACTED] agreed and said, no problem "Mafish Mushkala".
9 After two days, Wafa Idris traveled to Jerusalem to go around the city and to check whether there
10 were soldiers, checkpoints, and after that she returned to [REDACTED]'s house, and said that it was worth
11 carrying out the attack in Yaffo Street, because there were many people there, and I was with her in 12 [REDACTED]'s house. [REDACTED] said to her: "Tomorrow I will call you and explain to her what she must 13 do". This means how the explosive device will be activated. The explosive device had a clock
14 connected to it. The day before the attack the three of us, [REDACTED] and Wafa Idris and I, met in [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED]'s house in the industrial area in Bitunia, and [REDACTED] said to Wafa that she should come to the 16 Nablus Gate with the explosive device, give the explosive device to a young man who I do not know
17 and return; the young man knows what to do with the explosive device. Wafa Idris agreed to transfer 18 the explosive device to Jerusalem. On the day of the attack, Wafa Idris was late in arriving and taking 19 the explosive device from [REDACTED]. Wafa Idris should have been at [REDACTED]'s place at 20 half past nine in the morning, but she was late and arrived at half past ten in the morning. She took the 21 explosive device and traveled to Jerusalem, I do not know with which vehicle. Wafa Idris came to the 22 Nablus Gate and saw the young man

1 and said to him that she [illegible; crossed out] would place the explosive device by herself. The 2 young man telephoned [redacted] and told him that Wafa Idris would place the explosive
 3 device by herself. Then [redacted] said to him: it is not important who places the explosive device. I
 4 know this because [redacted] told me after the attack. At that time I was at work. An alarm clock was 5 connected to the explosive device and [redacted] knew the time at which the device was supposed to 6 explode. When [redacted] saw that the time was approaching, he called, from his mobile phone [redacted]
 7 [redacted] Wafa Idris and told her that there were seven minutes left, and after that he called again and 8 told her that there were three minutes left. Wafa said to him "do not be scared about me" and hung up 9 the mobile phone. [redacted] and I talked and our estimate (Tahlil) was that Wafa Idris had been 10 discovered with the explosive device and so [illegible; crossed out] she had not placed the explosive 11 device and after a few minutes the explosive device exploded.
 12 Question: You work at the Red Crescent as a medic who is supposed to save life. After that you are 13 an accomplice in an attack in which people are killed.
 14 Answer: I am explaining to you that I am not an accomplice, I just convinced Wafa to carry out the 15 attack.
 16 Question: What happened after the attack?
 17 Answer: Three days after the attack, on January 30, 2002, the [redacted] came to arrest
 18 me. [redacted] who was at the site, argued with the [redacted] and told them that I was 19 under surveillance (Murtab) and that the [redacted] had to arrest me and then 20 [redacted] took me to prison and told the prison warden, [redacted] aged about 35, from Ramallah,
 21 that I was not an ordinary detainee (Sajin Aadi) and that he had to guard me and give me and put me 22 in a room alone, without telling him why. After 40 days, Israeli aircraft bombed the Mukataa in 23 Ramallah and I was released. My parents asked me why they had arrested me.

1 I said because of my ties with Wafa Idris and in order to guard me ~~from the security~~ from the 2 [redacted] and the IDF.
3 Question: What activity did Wafa Idris carry out that you know about?
4 Answer: She transferred cartridges from Qalandia checkpoint and transferred leaflets of the Fatah
5 Organization to a-Ram checkpoint, and I know this because Wafa Idris told me.
6 Question: What is your additional activity? Investigator's comment: the above-named individual 7 wishes to go to the toilet. It is 4:20 p.m. I stop the statement and allow the above-named individual to 8 go to the toilet. It is now 4:30 p.m. I inform you that you are still being questioned under caution and 9 you do not have to say anything unless you want to, but whatever you say will be written down by me
10 and may be used as proof. Abstention from answering questions may strengthen the evidence against 11 you. (Investigator's comment – I read him the question from row 17).
12 Answer: [redacted] approached me before Wafa Idris carried out the attack in Jerusalem and asked me
13 and suggested to me to transfer explosive devices in an ambulance. I refused because it would be a
14 mistake to involve the Red Crescent in military activity, but after Wafa Idris carried out the suicide
15 attack, I contacted [redacted] and proposed that I drive explosive devices in the ambulance, but [redacted]
16 [redacted] said to me: forget about it, and asked me to bring him information about checkpoints, forces, 17 soldiers and arms and I gave him information about IDF forces before they went into Ramallah for 18 the first time.
19 This is his statement, which was given of his good free will, which was read to him and translated
